

You're My Girl

The Everly Brothers

When I close my eyes and I think of you
You wouldn't believe what comes in view
Your big brown eyes, your tasty lips
Your tender sighs, my, my, my, your shapely hips
You'd be surprised what I visualize I really tell the world
You're somethin' else
And you're my girl When I lay myself a-down to sleep
I count your charms and steal the sheep
The way you walk, your swingin' sway
The way you talk, hey, hey, hey, the things you say
I can't believe you belong to me I really tell the world
You're somethin' else
And you're my girl
