And I Think That's What I'll Do

Johnny Mathis

I find myself in a situation
Standing at the crossroads of my life
To the left stands a lovely lady
Childhood sweetheart, now devoted wifeLoving her the way I do, how can I explain?
Still she's got to know the truth
And I think that's what I'll do
And I think that's what I'll doThen again, filled with in-decision
How can I love her, yet love my wife?
It's possible it's just infatuation
If it were, I'd suffer all my lifeIf she means so much to me, why can't I decide?
I must choose what's right for me
And I think that's what I'll do
And I think that's what I'll doIf she means so much to me, why can't I decide?
I must choose what's right for me
And I think that's what I'll do
And I think that's what I'll doAnd I think that's what I'll do
And I think that's what I'll do
And I think that's what I'll do
And I think that's what I'll do
