Everything Changes

Kathy Troccoli

Well You came in my life like a ray of light
Shining through the clouds in my heart
I just looked at You and the world was new
It was right, right from the startYou came to me with a love so sweet
And I'll never, never ever be the sameEverything changes
Nothing looks the same through the eyes of love
Everything changes
When you love some, love some, love someone
Everything changesThought there never would be anyone for me
Then You came and changed everything
Now I shine like new because I've got You
Oh, ain't love a wonderful thingYou took my blues made them yesterday's news
And I'II never, never ever be the sameEverything changes
Nothing looks the same through the eyes of love
Everything changes
When you love some, love some, love someoneEverything changes
Standing in the light of a bright new sun
Everything changes
When you love some, love some, love someone
Everything changes, everything changesI'm looking around me and I'm loving what I see
'Cause I found somebody, somebody who loves meYou came to me with a love so sweet
And I'll never, never ever be the sameEverything changes
Nothing looks the same through the eyes of love
Everything changes
When you love some, love some, love someoneEverything changes
Standing in the light of a bright new sun
Everything changes
When you love some, love some, love someoneEverything changes
Nothing looks the same through the eyes of love
Everything changes
When you love some, love some, love someoneEverything changes
Standing in the light of a bright new sun
Everything changes
When you love some, love some, love someoneEverything changes
