

Break Me Gently (Incidental)

Doves

Walk inside, gets noticed
Fears conspire, they won't go away
And I know, and I see
You'll be breaking hearts again You break me gently
Break me gently
Break me gently Break my fall in vain
Pain won't go, rest in peace
And I look, and I see
You could be breaking souls again And I see me, break me gently
Break me gently
Break me gently
