Britney, I'm sorry for the lies we told
 We took you into our arms, then left you cold
 Britney, I'm sorry for this cruel, cruel world
 We sell the beauty but destroy the girl
 Britney, I'm sorry for your broken heart
 We stood aside and watched you fall apart
 I'm sorry we told you fame would fill you up
 And money moves the man, so drink the cup
 I know love goes around the world we know
 And you never see it coming back
 You never see it coming back
 I know love goes around the world we know
 And you never see it coming back
 But I can see it coming back for you
 Yes, coming back for you
 Britney, I'm sorry for the stones we throw
 We tear you down just so we can watch the show
 Britney, I'm sorry for the words we say
 We point the finger as you fall from grace
 I know love goes around the world we know
 And you never see it coming back
 You never see it coming back
 And I know love goes around the world we know
 And you never see it coming back
 But I can see it coming back for you
 Yeah, it's coming back for you
 Yeah, it's coming back for you
 yeah
 Britney, I do believe that love has come
 Here for the broken
 Here for the ones like us
 I know love goes around the world we know
 And you never see it coming back
 You never see it coming back
 And I know love goes around the world we know
 And you never see it coming back
 But I can see it coming back
 I know love goes around the world we know
 And you never see it coming back
 But I can see it coming back for you
 Yeah, it's coming back for you
 (I can see it coming back)
 Yeah, it's coming back for you
 (I can see it coming back)
 Yeah, it's coming back for you, yeah
 (I can see it coming back)
 I can see it coming back
