Telepath

Samael

TelepathWhat could one possibly say
To someone who ignores his way
Who's never been touched by grace
How could one eventually express
All the tension, all the stress
That can't be read on his face
All the people that one met
All the people that one left
They enrich, they develop
What one's got to reach the top
Being a sum of experiences
Giving life consistence
Knowing details makes differences
Entering a heart of existence
Tune your mind to the right channel
Things get played at a higher scale
Go memorize the frequency
Isn't it phenomenal
Don't you think it's magical
This electric storm of ecstacy
Ride the wind, take on your destiny
You gotta get much higher
Fly your flight, get over society
The world is by far much biggerNothing is impossible
Nothing is unreachableTune your mind to the right channel
Things get played at a higher scale
Go memorize the frequency
Isn't it phenomenal
Don't you think it's magical
This electric storm of ecstacyFear's got no place around here
What we see, what we hear
Format our comprehension
The un-thought, things we ignore
All the pluses and all the more
Wait to reach our perception
Spread your conscience to other territory
Your vision's gonna get much clearer
When the hunt is over parts meet in sympathy
World peace is getting nearer...

Spread your conscience to other territory
Your vision's gonna get much clearer
When the hunt is over parts meet in sympathy
World peace is getting nearer...Nothing is impossible
Nothing is unreachableWhat could one possibly say
To someone who ingores his way
Who's never been touched by grace

Soar...
