

Chopsticks

Al Hazan

I met him at a party and he told me how to drive him home
He said he liked to do it backwards
I said, "That's just fine with me,
That way we can fuck and watch TV."

It was four a.m. and the light was gray, like it always is in paperbacks
He asked if I liked playing jacks
I told him that I was good to sixes
But all hell broke loose after that

I told him that I knew Julia Roberts when I was twelve at summer camp
We didn't say anything after that I dropped him off and I drove on home
'Cause secretly I'm timid

---

Lyrics powered by lyrics.tancode.com written by PHAIR
Lyrics Â© Sony/ATV Music Publishing LLC

Lyrics provided by <https://damnllyrics.com/>