

Before I'm Dead

Kidneythieves

moon hangs around
a blade over my head
reminds me
what to do before im dead night consumes light the honesty i dread
reminds me what to do before im deadto see you to touch youepochs fly, reminds me what i hide, reminds me
the desert skies
cracks the spies
reminds me what i never tried the ocean wide salted red
reminds me what to do before im deadto see you
to touch you
to feel you
to tell youthe sun reclines.....remind me the desert skies....remind me
the ocean wide salted red
reminds me
