

Faded

Ben Harper

You so easily amuse
Like a pantomime
Such a silent crime You so easily abuse
Lack of confidence
It's your best offense You so easily confuse
You can't deny it
Still you try to hide it Faded, so faded
Like a memory gone
There's no recollection Faded, oh so faded
Like a forgotten dream
Further than it seems You so hastily defy
When you think you need it
You find a way to bleed it You so hastily deny
Pleading innocence
It's your best defense You so hastily reply
The moment that you said it
You already regret it Faded, oh so faded
Like a memory gone
There's no recollection Faded, oh so faded
Like a forgotten dream
Further than it seems You so easily abuse
You so easily abuse Faded, oh so faded
Like a memory gone
There's no recollection Faded, so faded
Like a forgotten dream
Further than it seems Faded, oh so faded
Like a memory gone
There's no recollection
