

Blasphemous Torment

Aversion to Life

Rotten piles of corpses bleed
Under inverted crosses feed
Witness to the evil breed
Everlasting Fire

SUFFER

Blasphemic debauchery
Chronic blood dependency
Let the Power flow thru me
Abysmal wretchedness

Release your soul to me
Crucified upside down, vomiting my Blasphemous Torment
Gallons of your blood on me
Fuck your eyes out of your skull, sockets spewing Blood
Convulsing on the Cross
Deteriorating body mass, more chunks of tissue for the pile
Stumps are spewing pus
Twitching lump as it falls to the ground, Pleasure
Another victim to bleed
Crawling to me, begging for my blasphemy
Nailed up to, inverted cross,
Struggle to breathe, feeding the beast, draw last breath

Divine prophecy extracting from your flesh
Habitual reality taste your adrenaline
Homicidal lechery bathed in your own wretch
Defiled treachery gangrene sets in
Divine prophecy extracting from your flesh
Habitual reality taste your adrenaline

Burning flames
Igniting brain
Scorching pain
Cremating Faith
Burning flames
Igniting brain

Blasphemic Debauchery

Gnashing on your spleen, exploring violently, draining all my seed, take you to the brink
Taste the pain of life; screams spear your strife, festering in bile, soul for me to drink
Strung upside down, carving at your feet, twitching body meat, Kept alive to think
Not allowing death, pile of twitching Meat, Blasphemous torment ensues

Still not dead yet, carnivorous savoring
Nailed through your eyes, suffering incarnate
Swimming in your pooled blood, eviscerated, pillaging
Tormenting incantation, insane predicament
Human crucifixion, putrid blasphamation
Explicitly divine, you've drowned yourself in

Torrential suffering, until you can stand no more
Screaming to become, my defiled whore
Living without agony, alien nature to me
Homicidal blasphemy, I release thee
Beautiful suffering, cannot stop it
Upside down in your blood, asphyxiate
