

Come a Little Closer

Ocean Pleasant

All we have is where we are now,
Is it enough to keep travelling down a
Road we know is bound to lead to
Whereverâ€™s convenient and requires the least?
Well I donâ€™t have a label or explanation,
I know we said no expectations,
But let it be known I
Want you more than I ever have,
Than I ever have.
Than, let it be known that
I donâ€™t know what to do without,
What to do without.

Cause, chances are Iâ€™m gonna say a lot of things I donâ€™t mean
And, chances are itâ€™s gonna be easy to believe, but
When I push you away what I mean to say:
Come a little closer to me now.
Cause all the time in the world, is just the time between
When Iâ€™m in your arms and when Iâ€™m lost at sea,
So come get lost with me.

But how is this worth waiting for,
If youâ€™ve got one foot in and one foot out the door?
This is no way to live, somethings gotta give
The waiting and maybes, and donâ€™t leave me hangings
I could do without, I could do without.
So come take my hand, come out on this limb
Show me something I can work with, oh oh.
Take my hand, come out on this limb,
Show me something I can work with.

Cause, chances are Iâ€™m gonna say a lot of things I donâ€™t mean
And, chances are itâ€™s gonna be easy to believe, but
When I push you away what I mean to say:
Come a little closer to me now.
Cause all the time in the world, is just the time between
When Iâ€™m in your arms and when Iâ€™m lost at sea,
So come get lost with me.

And chances are youâ€™re gonna choose to walk away,

Less risk than speaking what you have to say.

Separation of heart and mind,

Maybe one day youâ€™ll find the time.

Convince myself Iâ€™m ready to leave,

Why donâ€™t I know what I believe?

And we can spend time waiting,

On the off chance that weâ€™re saving

Everything that we could be for something better than itâ€™s ever been.

But first, you gotta let me in.

Oh, first you gotta let me in.

How do I know if this is meant to be, when

All I can see is whatâ€™s in front of me?

Youâ€™re two steps too far away, is it my place to say:

Come a little closer.

Come a little closer to me now.

Come a little closer to me now.
