One Day I Will

Joy Williams

I'd love to write a happy song
One day I will
I'd like to feel a little less alone
One day I will

When I look back, I'd like to say
I'm better off on my own
And even though right now, I don't feel strong
One day I will, one day

One day I will remember how it felt
When it was good
I won't feel torn each time I hear your name
As if I could

When I look back, I'd like to say
You're better off because of me
And maybe if you asked me to forgive
One day I will, one day

When I look back, I'd like to say
I'm better off on my own
And even though right now, I don't feel strong
One day I will, I will
One day I will, I will
One day I will, ooh, one day
One day I will, I will
