

Bad Taste

Hardline

(Johnny Gioeli, Joey Gioeli, Neal Schon)

She comes on like a freight train, tearing up the tracks again
She'll shift hard into high gear, to get away from where she's been
And I heard her comin' from a mile away, yeah I felt the ground shake
If you wanna rock, coal into the fire, man that's your first mistake
Well you're smooth like silk, but you're spoiled like milk
Yeah yeah yeah yeah

Chorus:

You leave a bad taste, honey (yeah, bad taste), such a bad, bad taste
Such a sad taste, honey (yeah, bad taste), oh you leave me with this Bad, bad taste

She only comes around, when somethin' goin' down
Fast cars and cigarette boats, speed up with a lot of noise
Well I could not believe the news girl,
You've been playing with another man's toys
Now who's gonna be the lucky one, who will beat your hungry past
When you climb real high in the money tree, honey
Shake it, shake it, girl, like you did to me, yeah
Well you're smooth like silk, but you're spoiled like milk, yeah yeah yes you know

(chorus repeats 2x...)

She leaves a bad taste

(Solo)

(chorus repeats 2x...)
