The Tower of Learning

Rufus Wainwright

Advisory - the following lyrics contain explicit language:

I'm looking for the tower of learning
I'm looking for the copious prize
I saw it in your eyes what I'm looking for
I saw it in your eyes what I'm looking forI really do fear that I'm dying
I really do fear that I'm dead
I saw it in your eyes what I'm looking for
I saw it in your eyes what will make me liveAll the sights of Paris, pale inside your iris
Tip the Eiffel Tower with one glance
Stained glass cathedrals with one glintYou smashed it with your eyes
What I'm looking for
One blink and then my heart
Wasn't there no moreI'm looking for the tower of learning
I'm looking for the copious prize
