

Don't Walk Away

Mario

Her voice

I could still hear it all in my head
I could still hear the way that she said
When she said she's leavin'

Her tears

I could still feel 'em all in my hands
I could still see it from where I stand
In her pain I'm drownin'

But I only have myself to blame

You tell me that it's too late

I think about you night and day

Yes, I hurt you, I know, yeah, I made my mistakes

Next time I won't let pride in the way

I will stand by your side and I'll stand till it's right

There's no way it should end this way

Just don't walk away

You're on the other side of town

I wonder what you're thinkin' now

Never meant to break ya down, I'm sorry now

One more day without you by my side

I swear it's gonna make me die

I need you to turn around, oh baby

Yes, I hurt you, I know, yeah, I made my mistakes

Next time I won't let pride in the way

I will stand by your side and I'll stand till it's right

There's no way it should end this way

Just don't walk away

Just don't walk away

Just don't walk away

Don't walk away, girl

Go nowhere

Every morning when I arise

It's a nightmare

'Cause baby, you're not there

No lovin' when I get home

I'm tired of prayin' alone

Baby, please come back, I know

Yeah, I hurt you, I know, yes, I made my mistakes

Next time I won't let pride in the way

I will stand by your side and I'll stand till it's right
There's no way it should end this way
Just don't walk away
Yes, I hurt you, I know, yeah, I made my mistakes
Next time I won't let pride in the way
I will stand by your side and I'll stand till it's right
There's no way it should end this way
Just don't walk away
Don't walk away, don't walk away
Don't walk away, don't walk away
Don't walk away, don't walk away
Don't walk away, don't walk away
