

Once Again (Prelude Bonus)

A Tear Beyond

I weigh up in Silence, my feeling once again and find myself still crying I'm gone outside, inside my soul's moveing...
Wings, dark sisters of mine take me up to the high emotions of dreams let me stay without meOnce Again Watching from the Clouds I'm flying Once AgainWhy can't I dream, why can't i feel my night so warm i'm wishing for my body hanging between life and death!
Dreams, dark brothers of mine delete all my days, erease my daily anxiety make me feel like this...Resting myself on the clouds I'm screaming out Blood, mud and life's painsLanding is not my choice something's calling, something's growing,
something's burning my eyes, muscles devour the bones, air... penetrate my lungs...Heart pump out the blood on asphalt and grey sand heart pumps out the blood on asphalt...
ONCE AGAIN!
