The Fall of Lucifer

Trouble

Lucifer, the angel of light
Wanted power, and chose to fight
Lord God, the creator of all
Is the power, met his final callChoose the way that's in your heart
Conquer all the hate
You need all the love God brings
Don't fall in the hands of fateNow the dragon, so he is called
Went to battle like fire he crawled
Lord God, mighty sword in hand
Slayed the dragon, will this ever endChoose the way that's in your heart
Conquer all the hate
You need all the love God brings
Don't fall in the hands of fateod's throne which was never done
Good must come at any cost
Lucifer, now the wicked Satan
Lives in fire, hate you, yes he canCast down from heaven
Thou hath been beaten O Lucifer
With all they followers of sin
You shall die in flames of the fireSo you think that you believe
Satan just laughing in your face
Join hands give praise to the lord
Be saved, o will you not be saved
