

Living Hell

The Misfits

Locked in a cage by yourself
Downtrodden rage breeds poor health
 Make an excuse then duck out
 Its self induced, knuckle back
 Try to get off, go somewhere
Dying for love way out thereIf you want to escape this living hell
 Cast off your chains and be free
 If you dont believe you owe it to yourself
You can owe it to me, owe it to meWipe of the dust, let it shine
 You can adjust, given time
 Ready to leave, you show up
You got a grief, come, grow upIf you want to escape this living hell
 Cast off your chains and be free
 If you dont believe you owe it to yourself
You can owe it to meIf you want to escape this living hell
 Cast off your chains and be free
 If you dont believe you owe it to yourself
You can owe it to meIm here to help, you decline
 Wanna rebel by design
 Cut off your nose to spite your face
And superimpose your disgraceIf you want to escape this living hell
 Cast off your chains and be free
 If you dont believe you owe it to yourself
You can owe it to meIf you want to escape this living hell
 Cast off your chains and be free
 If you dont believe you owe it to yourself
You can owe it to meIll find a way to lead you astray
 Just a little longer
 Ill find a way to lead you astray
Stay a little longerIll find a way to lead you astray
 Just a little longer
 Ill find a way to lead you astray
Stay a little longerYeah, you can owe it to me
 You can owe it to me
 You can owe it to me
 You can owe it to me, to me
 You can owe it to me
