

State of Emergency

Nick Jonas & the Administration

Oh yeahShe's seductive, she does it well
She'll charge you by the hour
For a straight trip down to hell
She'll correct you when you think you know
She's gonna let you go, she's gonna let you go.I'm not a lover but I'm still concerned
That when you touch the fire that your heart could still get burned
I should want you, that I know
You're gonna let me go, you're gonna let me go.See all those familiar faces crowded in my mind
I know, that now is not the time
Run around with someone else
Satisfy yourself but don't fool me
Don'tcha let it be
A state of emergency yeahPledge allegiance to the cause
She'll tell you that she's leaving if you don't put your life on pause
She'll surprise you, when you think you know
She's gonna let you go, she's gonna let you goSee all those familiar faces crowded in my mind
I know that now is not the time
Run around with someone else
Satisfy yourself but don't fool me
Don'tcha let it be
A state of emergency.I know it's hard when life's unfair
But that doesn't mean you shouldn't care
Show me the way to reach your heart
Where do I startSee all those familiar faces crowded in my mind
I know that now is not the time
Run around with someone else
Satisfy yourself but don't fool me
Don'tcha let it be
Don'tcha let it be
A state of emergency.
