

Fly Straight

Aidan Hawken

Call me anytime
I'll be right there for you
I'll lift you up when you are low
You helped me to undo
The selfish things I've done
I thought I was the only one

Fly straight to the sun
I feel like we've just begun
And I'm overcome

It tears me up each time
I think of you with him
I only have myself to blame
And though it seems
I've lost my mind
You never were a waste of time

Fly straight to the sun
I feel like we've just begun
And I'm overcome
