Goodbye

Saivu

I'm all alone at 4 am you stopped me walking by we had a few laughs on the way before you pulled me to the side said you didn't want to, say goodbye

mornings that would feel so wrong when waking up in bed alone were gone when I turned around I found it in your eyes and you still hadn't said goodbye

How long
till you're gonna come and say goodbye

never thought this day would come the emptiness is you been gone and when I made the call with silence you replied and there was nothing, no goodbye

how long,
how long,
