

Sunset Superman

Dio

The night has a thousand eyes
But he moves in only places
Where the eyes can never beThe night tells a thousand lies
And when you wake up in the morning
Were you dreaming, screaming
Tryin to hide your burnin' heart
Before somebody cuts it all awaySunset superman
Sunset superman
Sunset supermanSomebody start the game
And the dark will just get louder
As it shouts away the lightA shadow without a name
But when he wakes up in the morning
He just won't know was he a hero
Trying to hide his burning heart
Before somebody cuts it all awaySunset superman
Sunset superman
Sunset superman
Anybody can
Sunset supermanThe night has a thousand eyes
But he moves in only places
Where the eyes can never beThe night tells a thousand lies
And when you wake up in the morning
Were you dreaming, screaming
Tryin to hide your broken heart
Before somebody cuts it all awaySunset superman
Sunset superman
Sunset supermanSunset superman
Sunset superman
Superman, oohSunset superman
Sunset superman
Sunset superman, oohAnybody can
Anybody can
Sunset superman, oohSunset superman
Sunset superman
Sunset superman, oohSunset superman
Sunset superman
Sunset superman
