

Speak To The Wild

Thurston Moore

Speak to the wild
Reach the for wire
Protect your child
From empty empireThe king has come to join the bandRemove your wings
And meet us near the fire
Extinguish things
Of earthly desireThe king has come to meet the band
The king has come with no demandDon't let the dark get you lost
Your free will has come in fire and frostSpeak to the wild
Reach for the wire
Protect your child
From empty empireThe king has come to join the bandRemove your wings
And meet us near the fire
Extinguish things
Of earthly desireThe king has come to meet the band
The king has come with no demandDon't let the dark get you lost
Your free will has come in fire and frost[Instrumental break]Speak to the wild
Reach for the wire
Protect your child
From empty empireThe king has come to join the bandRemove your wings
And meet us near the fire
Extinguish things
Of earthly desireThe king has come to meet the band
The king has come with no demandDon't let the dark get you lost
Your free will has come in fire and frost
