Do It Alone

Kid Cudi

(Yawns) shit.... man ... dream on... dream on... man
(Verse 1)
These voices they tell me go,
but why should I ever go?
Man I'm so comfortable here.
Why should I head to a place where people live in fear?
Stand off is still really here something they can really feel.
But see I'll never get,
why the earth is a puzzle that I'll never fit.
I'm not of their world,
so why should I leave my sanctuary?
Man, the whole thought of that is scary.
How do I know that the kind will truly hear me out?
Will they understand I'm flying from a different route?
Pose as a human being,
mother moon tells me that people need my help.
I guess these are the cards she threw out and dealt.
She said I gotta do it alone,
she said I gotta do it alone.
I guess I gotta go
(Hook)
You got to do it alone man
you go to do it alone,
you got to do it alone man.
Go on your own.
It's bigger then you man,
it's bigger then you,
it's bigger then you man.
(Verse 2)
She said to pack my bags dawg,
and never look back.
This is something that I have to do.
A hero to save the world,
a hero with no girl or no family
just sacrifice as a friend.
And struggle is the enemy,
but weed is the remedy.
And if you get lonely boy you can just roll up a dutch and keep your head high.

Wanna see home, look at the sky.
Remember you're not strange but you are not the same, mane.
(Hook)
You got to do it alone man,
you go to do it alone,
you got to do it alone man.
Go on your own.
It's bigger then you man,
it's bigger then you,
it's bigger then you man.

Lyrics provided by
https://damnlyrics.com/