The Phoenix Within

Seasons

By: Omar Feliciano

Verse 1:

Iâ€™m haunted by your face every second of my day.
My heart feels like itâ€™s soon, soon to decay.
I know you curse & damn the day
You ever laid your eyes or ever spoke a word to me

Pre-chorus:

Respect & honesty are the treasures you deserve & every bone inside of me will give you what is yours.

Chorus:

The summer will come & burn us to shreds
The fall will return & bring you back to me again
& When the winter hits we will freeze in place
When spring returns we will blossom again

Verse 2:

Its time that I man up, admit that I was wrong
I burned our bridge down; Iâ€™m the reason we canâ€™t talk.

Pre-chorus:

Respect & honesty are the treasures you deserve & every bone inside of me will give you what is yours.

Bridge:

Iâ€™m sorry for the fool I am for the stupid things I always say but if the seasons change then people can, just hear me out, just hear me out.
