Yes

Advisory - the following lyrics contain explicit language:

I can feel no sense of measure
No illusions as we take
Refuge in young man's pleasure
Breaking down the dreams we make, realOne down, one to go
Another town and one more show
Downtown they're giving away
But she never came backNo phone can take your place
You know what I mean
We have the same intrigue
As a court of kingsAhh, leave it
Ahh, leave itTwo down, there you go
McArthur Park in the driving snow
Uptown, they're digging it out
Better lay your claimGet home, you're not alone
You just broke out of the danger zone
Be there to show your face
On another dreamy dayAhh, leave it
Ahh, leave itGoodbye goodbye goodbye bad
Hello hello heaven
Goodbye goodbye goodbye bad
Hello hello heavenI can feel no sense of measure
No illusions as we take
Refuge in young man's pleasure
Breaking down the dreams we make, realAhh, leave it
Ahh, leave itGoodbye goodbye goodbye bad
Hello hello heaven
Goodbye goodbye goodbye bad
Hello hello heavenOne down, one to go
Another town and one more show
One down, one to go
Another town and one more showLeave it
