

Break (New Beat Fund Remix)

Night Riots

I want to believe that you and I could just run away
That there's a reason we are here
And we have some kind of say
They will try but they will never break what you are
There is us, we are one
As the whole world falls apart
Disappear, in your eyes the world disappears
Disappear, in your eyes all my fears disappear
The moon rises like a god shines on your skin
And for a moment we are pure
And it brings me to my knees
We hold a truth close that no one listens when we pray
We have a spark of hope from the cradle to the grave
They will try but they will never break what you are
There is us, we are one
As the whole world falls apart
They will try but they will never break what you are
There is us, we are one
As the whole world falls apart
Disappear, in your eyes the world disappears
Disappear, in your eyes all my fears disappear
You are my body's solution
You are my body's solution
They will try but they will never break what you are
There is us, we are one
As the whole world falls apart
They will try but they will never break what you are
There is us, we are one
As the whole world falls apart
Disappear, in your eyes the world disappears
Disappear, in your eyes all my fears disappear
