Fool #1

The Mavericks

Fool #1
Is what I've been known to be
But only for you
My loveStill so in love
And you make believe you don't know me
Now I'm cryin' and I'm dyin' to know
Is it soEvery night I hope and pray
Maybe somehow, maybe someday
That when you come around
To the lonely side of town
I'll still be waiting here
I'm your fool #1I've made mistakes
You say you will never ever forgive
If only you would
My loveThere'll come a time
When you will be lonely too
You'll be wondering
And you'll be wanting to know
Where did I goAnd every night you'll hope and pray
Maybe somehow, maybe someday
That when you come around
To the lonely side of town
I will be waiting here
I am your fool #1And you'll be wanting to know
Where did I goAnd every night you'll hope and pray
Maybe somehow, maybe someday
That when you come around
To the lonely side of town
I will be waiting here
I am your fool #1
You know I will be waiting here
I'll be your fool #1
