The Sex Is Good

Saving Abel

Advisory - the following lyrics contain explicit language:

You know all my deepest secrets
I think you know, you know to keep 'em
But I wonder if you know I hate sleeping aloneSo come and tell me what my kiss tastes like
Don't wanna miss it so turn off the lights
But I wonder if you know I hate sleeping aloneI have to fake it, I'd leave if I could
I'm not in love but the sex is good
You can't mistake it 'cause it's understood
I'm not in love but the sex is good
Yeah, hmmYou got to know, know my weakness
You always touch in all the right places
We don't get along that well
Not much for talk but you're hot as hellI have to fake it, I'd leave if I could
I'm not in love but the sex is good
You can't mistake it 'cause it's understood
I'm not in love but the sex is good
Yeah, hmm, yeah, hmmIt's not like I wanna stick around
It's just tonight I'm gonna lay you down, yeahSo now you know what my kiss tastes like
So in the morning I'll say goodbye
But I wonder if you know and I hate sleeping aloneI have to fake it, I'd leave if I could
I'm not in love but the sex is good
You can't mistake it 'cause it's understood
I'm not in love but the sex is goodI have to fake it, I'd leave if I could
I'm not in love but the sex is good
You can't mistake it 'cause it's understood
I'm not in love but the sex is good
Yeah, hmm, yeah, hmm, aye
