Where Did We Go Wrong

Leo Sayer

Oh, baby
Youve stopped crying
Oh, baby
Please tell me, whats on your mind?I can see the tears but I dont know why youre crying
Is it me or is it you?
Is it real or just a mood?
Well, I know youre sad but what ya tryin' to prove?When you say that you cant go on
And you feel like you dont belong
Youve to nobody to lean upon
It seems weve come to so far but we just cant get alongDarling, where did we go wrong?
Where did we go wrong, baby?
Darling, where did we go wrong?
I wanna know, I wanna knowDarling, where did we go wrong?
Im gonna try and try and change
Where did we go wrong?Ive been workin', never coming home at all
I left you chained to the kitchen busy walkin' up the wall
Now I dont want nobody else
And Im not thinking about myselfWhen I say that Ill do anything to stop you
Saying that you dont belong
And what we had has just upped and gone
Please please try, try to be strong
Oh, I apologize, I didnt mean to lead you onDarling, where did we go wrong?
I know where we went wrong
Where did we go wrong?Ooh, darling, where did we go wrong?
Somewhere along the line
Where did we go wrong?Well, you know there aint nobody else
Id be a fool trying to please myself
If I thought that there could be anybody else
Well, youll see now at time goes on
Ill be the one that you can lean uponWell dry out the tears
And never have to say that we were wrong
Ooh, babe, well get it on
Darling, where did we go wrong?Well start again, baby
Where did we go wrong?
Change, lets change, lets change
Darling, where did we go wrong?Baby, we went wrong somewhere
Where did we go wrong?
But we can try again
We can try again
