Love Forgives

Living Sacrifice

Through the raging gates of hell
He has shown redemption
He has opened up the skies
And made up for my lossesWho can make dark
The purpose of Yahweh?
Who can take away
The hands of compassion?The air is blessed and my house is full
I was destroyed but Your hand brought beauty
My sin had overcome me
But Your hand brought mercyI am lifted by Your love
Through the cracks of my despair
Each day is made new
In Your hands foreverThis is a call to the weak
These are the words we proclaim
Piece by piece I have gained
A part of myselfMy dreams are one again
Let me take you
Beauty Your majesty
Love forgives travestyThis is a call to the weak
These are the words we proclaim
Piece by piece I have gained
A part of myselfMy dreams are one again
Let me take you
Beauty Your majesty
Love forgives travestyLove forgives
Love forgives
Love forgives
