

Pride in Prejudice

Slayer

You made your choice
I'll take my stand
Your life story in my bloodstained hands
Pride in prejudice
Don't give me that power bullshit
Pride in prejudice
One gunshot sets the precedence
Abuse of power, civil unrest
Money in blood is of no significance
Inner rage waiting to ignite
Blood of the innocents unites
I'm right you're wrong
In number I'm strong
Violence is proof enough that I am
Pride in prejudice
Don't give me that power bullshit
Pride in prejudice
One gunshot sets the precedence
Martial law, a militant state
Barrel of a gun seals your fate
Fire burns with media hype
Speak the truth through your own lies
Pride in prejudice
Don't give me that power bullshit
Hate and violence
One gunshot sets the precedence
Pride in prejudice
Don't give your bullshit
Pride in prejudice
One gunshot killed the innocent
Some love to hate
Right in your face
Violence will facilitate
Fuel the fire with racial slurs
And see who kills the other first
