Wherever

clipping.

Wherever you may go
There's no escape
The memories in your soul
You can't reshape
Wherever your livin
There's no forgiving
Cause you're guilty of deceit
Wherever you may hide
The flashing lights of evil you can't fight
And they will hurt you
Hurt you
'Most every night
Whatever you may try
The shadows of your crimes they won't go by Nightmare will haunt your mind
And you will find
They'll never die
Wherever you may go
There's no escape
The memories in your soul
You can't reshape
Wherever your livin
There's no forgiving
Cause you're guilty of deceit
Whatever you may do there's no release
The pain deep down inside will never cease

You're even lying
When you're crying
Coz your heart is filled with hate -
Wherever you will be you'll meet your fate
Whenever you feel free
You'll find out that you've got no chance to flee
Remeber only
The lonely
Know what you've done
Whatever you may say
You know you'll never wash your sins away
You will forever

Bear those brandings
You are the one
Wherever you may go
There's no escape
The memories in your soul
You can't reshape
Wherever your livin
There's no forgiving
Cause you're guilty of deceit
Whatever you may do there's no release
The pain deep down inside will never cease
You're even lying
When you're crying
Coz your heart is filled with hate -
Wherever you will be you'll meet your fate
