

Took A Hit

Racoon

One party to call. Two people. one falls

No mermory at all. Just a waiting list

Some yelling, some tall

Some quiet, some small

They nibble on, well, anyone. No can do for you doll
Took a hit, a good hit, Like a car into the wall

What a hit, a real hit, when I thought I'd seen it all

Took a hit, a good hit, Let the dealer make the call

Oh man I thought I'd seen it all
You throw out the recipe, forget about you and me

You throw out the recipe, It's not about you or me

throw out the recipe, forget about you and me

You throw out the recipe, because the good life, the good love, the good bits are for free
Some ladies out there, nobody that seems to care

No beauty queens, out there. Just a waiting list

Thick stare straight through the room, we all give away the goods too soon

And we're waiting for something to say, instead of listening
Took a hit, a good hit, like a car into the wall

Oh man I thought I'd seen it all
You throw out the recipe, forget about you and me

You throw out the recipe, It's not about you or me

throw out the recipe, forget about you and me

You throw out the recipe, because the good life, the good love, the good bits are for free
Oh, that's what all good love should be
Took a hit, a good hit, like a car into the wall

Oh man I thought I'd seen it all
You throw out the recipe, forget about you and me

You throw out the recipe, It's not about you or me

throw out the recipe, forget about you and me

You throw out the recipe, because the good love, the good life, the good bits are..
The recipe, forget about you and me.

Throw out the recipe, It's not about you and me

Throw out the recipe, forget about you and me

You throw out the recipe, because the good love, the good life, the good bits are for free

Lyrics provided by

<https://damnlyrics.com/>