Last Train to Hell

Winterborn

He's standing proud, waiting for sign
The days of the glory will arrive
Behind the eyes, his twisted mind
He knows that he needs no alibiNow taking the last train, right to the promised land
No matter what it takes, he's giving everything he hasNow innocence will fade away, washed away by tears
All our dreams has gone astray, all that's left is fear
The cruelty in our hearts will tear this world apart
This is the point of no return
Last train to hellThe righteous will rise, with burning eyes
The madmen fed on fear and all the lies
And those who don't know, just where to go
Believe this war, religion justifiesNow taking the last train, right to the promised land
No matter what it takes, he's giving everything he hasNow innocence will fade away, washed away by tears
All our dreams has gone astray, all that's left is fear
The cruelty in our hearts will tear this world apart
This is the point of no return
Last train to hellJudgement day for mankind has comeNow innocence will fade away, washed away by tears
All our dreams has gone astray, all that's left is fear
The cruelty in our hearts will tear this world apart
This is the point of no return
Last train to hell
