Not Again (feat. Kevin Curry) [Bonus Track]

Staind

Do you feel like your falling
You've taken this step
In front of you
Is further from the truth
And fall apart
In front of me again
Denial isn't the way to forgiveness
You always swore that I was wrongNot again
No taste for the crow you feed me
Not again
It's not a matter of if I care
Not again
What an intricate web your weaving
Again and againSo you try not to follow
While the clock fails to sleep
So here we are back we're it began
And toe to toe I stand
In front of you again
Denial isn't the way to forgiveness
You always swore that I was wrongNot again
No taste for the crow you feed me
Not again
It's not a matter of if I care
Not again
What an intricate web your weaving
Again and againNot again
No taste for the crow you feed me
Not again
It's not a matter of if I care
Not again
What an intricate web your weaving
Again and againAgain
Again
