Powerman 5000

Wait, wait, wait, wait, wait
What's the meaning?
You must be dreaming
To want the meaning of lifeI heard you screaming
To know the meaning
To know the meaning of lifeYeah, what's the meaning?
You must be dreaming
To want the meaning of lifeI heard you screaming
To know the meaning
To know the meaning of lifeYou've got radio
Living the stereo
You got the song that you loveBut they just liars
The work expires
And then that feeling is goneWhat's the meaning?
You must be dreaming
To want the meaning of lifeI heard you screaming
To know the meaning
To know the meaning of lifeWe've got people
So many people
Walking two steps behindThey come to judge you
No one rocks above you
But still they make you feel blindStill they make you feel blind
Still they make you feel blindWhat's the meaning?
You must be dreaming
To want the meaning of lifeI heard you screaming
To know the meaning
To know the meaning of lifeDelay that decay
But the world keep moving on
You need to know
A little more than thatYour time is up
But the world keeps moving on
You need to know
A little more that thatWhat's the meaning?
You must be dreaming
To want the meaning of lifeI heard you screaming
To know the meaning
To know the meaning of lifeLet's go
(Life, life)
You need to know

A little more than that

(Life, life)

You need to know

A little more than that(Life, life)

You need to know

A little more than that

You need to know

A little more than that
