Storm

Sanctification

Storm! Storm!

Feel the storm of agony,
Cloaked in blood they came
The undead swarm for victory,
An endless war was meant to be
Their armours shook in measured breath
ALL HAIL THEE VICTORIOUS!

Axes smeared in blood,
The warï»¿ has just begun
Painful you'll see,
Join us and you'll be free

My axe held high, in the sky, hold the line
Blood spilled, darkness conquer all
Drown them in their blood divine
My hatred let free
