For a While

Tony Banks

I feel it leading me Away to I don't know where I might be back someday But the people and things will change And no one will remember me thenDon't need no sympathy For soon I'll forget everything I feel it fading now And I see in the eyes of my love Tears for how it might have beenIt sure felt good for a while Yes, it was good for a while I found somebody to take my hand To the promised land of the lovedNow as the night draws in A dark with no promise of dawn I feel my eyes grow dim As I see in the eyes of my love Tears for how it might have beenIt sure felt good for a while Yes, it was good for a while I found somebody to take my hand To the promised land of the lovedYes, it was good for a while It sure felt good for a while I found somebody to take my hand
