

Thirteen Sad Farewells

Stu Larsen

You've been seeing me through your grown up eyes and your sweet disguise
And you've been running free with your lullabies and those same old lies

Darling I should've said goodbye
Before you even caught my eye
No I can't bear to see this die
Thirteen sad farewells my darling
Thirteen sad farewells
I will see you no more darling
I've used all my farewells
You've been seeing her
With her pretty eyes
And her lovely lies
And I've been waiting here
I've been killing time
Hoping you will be mine
Darling I should've said goodbye
Before you even caught my eye
No I can't bear to see this die
Thirteen sad farewells my darling
Thirteen sad farewells
I will see you no more darling
I've used all my farewells
Thirteen sad farewells my darling
Thirteen sad farewells
You will see me no more darling
You have used all your farewells
You have used all your farewells
You have used all your farewells
