

Wore Out My Soul

Casey Abrams

When I saw you in that window
I should have kept walking by
Heart slows down my paces
Temptress lures me inside Temperature is rising, mhm
Gotta take off my tie
Felt your tongue with the
As I slipped it all in
A shoveling up so high,
Without your love around
My feet drag on the ground
I just wanna take you on
But as time keeps moving on
Your shine is clearly gone
This just aint going nowhere I thought you were the one,
I didnt mean it, oh,
I tried those new shoes on
You should have seen it
Oh, your experience is wrong
But your comfort is not enough
You know baby you really wore out my soul
Wore out my soul When I walked with you, it used to feel so sweet
People would see us together, I was complete
Mama used to say Ill go out of you one day
I thought Ill be with you till we were old and grey
Without your love around, I thought Id feel so down
I thought Id be crying all the time
But as time kept moving on,
You surely clearly gone
I knew that Id walk out all over you, whoa! I thought you were the one,
I didnt mean it, oh,
I tried those new shoes on
You should have seen it
Oh, your exterior is rough
But your comfort is not enough
You know baby you really wore out my soul
Wore out my soul I thought you were the one,
I didnt mean it, uh, uh
I tried those new shoes on
You should have seen it

Oh, your exterior is rough
But your comfort is not enough
You know baby you really wore out my soul
Wore out my soul Oh, I thought you were the one,
I thought you were the one,
I tried those new shoes on
You know baby you really wore out my soul.
