Is Dog Eared

Art Brut

She says she has no time for fiction
Well, I disagree
If I have to live in this world
I want something better to readMaybe you arrived on your own
But you won't be leaving aloneI'm still here
Just dog eared
I'm still here
Just dog eared
I'm still hereYou say people misunderstand you
Well, I get misunderstood too
So let's hang around together
And we can misunderstand each otherMaybe you arrived on your own
But you won't be leaving aloneI'm still here
Just dog eared
I'm still here
Just dog eared
I'm still hereWe found a plot of land
Just for ourselves
We're digging foundations
If you wanna help usMaybe you arrived on your own
Maybe you arrived on your own
Alone, aloneHere
Just dog eared
I'm still here
Just dog earedI'm still here
Just dog eared
I'm still here
Just dog eared
I'm still hereI'm still here
