Wait

Zoegirl

You've been hurt
You've been lied to
You ran all your life
Just to get out of your shoes
But you settled in too soon
Now your road is clear-ly dark
No room for any light to break throughYou're on a mission to get even with the world
To give back all the pain you received
It's just too hard to believe
That anything can make it betterPlease don't let it end this way
You could wait another day
It's foolish games that players play
One choice can bring you so much ache
Please don't end up this way
There's got to be some other way
You could live without this mistake
So please waitYou've been betrayed
Left so confused
Couldn't understand
How trust could be so abused
So you let the darkness
Come over you
Now you don't know
Anyone to turn toYou're beat up and bitter
Face down in the cold
Lyin' in the ground with footprints on your back
Where ya gonna go?
You've never been so lowPlease don't let it end this way
You could wait another day
It's foolish games that players play
One choice can bring you so much ache
Please don't end up this way
There's got to be some other way
You could live without this mistake
So please waitPlease don't let it end this way
You could wait another day
It's foolish games that players play
One choice can bring you so much ache
Please don't end up this way

There's got to be some other way
You could live without this mistake
So please waitPlease don't let it end this way
You could wait another day
It's foolish games that players play
One choice can bring you so much ache
Please don't end up this way
There's got to be some other way
You could live without this mistake
So please waitPlease don't let it end this way
You could wait another day
It's foolish games that players play
One choice can bring you so much ache
Please don't end up this way
There's got to be some other way
You could live without this mistake
So please waitPlease don't let it end this Please don't let it end this
