Tomorrow

Niki & The Dove

Oh, thought that I owned these grounds but they're no longer mine
I have to find another way home
And you, you were all that I got, you kept me hanging on
I have to make it on my own now
Oh, oh the night is young
And a hollow tooth was all it tookAnd I, I tie the laces around my wrist
For the last time, meet me at the same placeOh if tomorrow comes
I wanna waste my love on you like a pearl merchant
I'm ready to learn what it tastes to burn
I'm gonna let you show me what it means to breathe fire
(Yeah yeah yeah)I never knew what I want, I let my body talk
I was in a deep sleepAnd I, I tie the laces around my wrist
Oh for the last time, meet me at the same placeOh if tomorrow comes (tomorrow)
I wanna waste my love on you like a pearl merchant
I'm ready to learn (I'm ready) what it tastes to burn
I'm gonna let you show me what it means to breathe fireI kept on coming back, I couldn't help myself (oh oh oh oh oh)
Saw thin feathers ahead of me, and then my footsteps you were near
Can you really trust this haze?If tomorrow comes
I wanna waste my love on you like a pearl merchant
I'm ready to learn (I'm ready) what it tastes to burn
I'm gonna let you show me what it means to breathe fireOoh if tomorrow comes, tomorrow comes
I wanna waste my love on you like a pearl merchant
I'm ready, I'm ready, I'm ready to learn
I'm ready, I'm ready
I'm ready, I'm ready to learn
I'm ready, I'm ready to learn
