

Love Is A Man's World

Toto

Don't you know that the girl left a long time ago
And I find that she took half the blood that I own
And it pains me to think about wasting way the years
So I'll just wash this dirty whiskey glass with my tears

Love is a man's world

Love is a man's world

Love is a man's world

It's a crime the way we've been treatin' each other
And a maze in between the real me and the lover
I'm tired of believing that I lost all my senses
I never thought my imaginary dream would be so expensive

Love is a man's world

Love is a man's world

Love is a man's world

Love is a man's world (etc fade)
