

Never See the End

Amanda Cook

Beyond the end and the beginning
You have been and You will be
Who in all the world is like You
Still I'm not beyond your reach

You are perfect in Your very nature
Yet You understand the human mind
Faithful even when I wander
You are patient, You are kind

How deep
How wide
How high
Is Your love for me
I can never see the end

Where can I go from Your presence
Your love surrounds me on all sides
Free from shame, there is no hiding
I am Yours and You are mine

How deep
How wide
How high
Is Your love for me
I can never see the end
