Refuge from Reality

Dreamtale

As my mind flows by
It wanders through the time
Darkness hides the light of dayAnd time goes by
It reaches shrouded mind
Shadows veil this unsound smileShadows hide the light
Bleakness fills my mind
I'll rise on my wings tonightWith the wind I fly at the nightly sky
I ride the lightning of the storm
I'm the hero of the tales
The son of thunder from the forgotten dales
This dreamland will be mine
Refuge from realityDreaming's my way
To another better place
The door to my dream taleThis tale never ends
Stories reaching through the time
Come with us and fly to the darkShadows hide the light
Bleakness fills my mind
I'll rise on my wings tonightWith the wind I fly at the nightly sky
I ride the lightning of the storm
I'm the hero of the tales
The son of thunder from the forgotten dales
This dreamland will be mine
Refuge from realityShadows hide the light
Bleakness fills my mind
I'll rise on my wings tonightWith the wind I fly at the nightly sky
I ride the lightning of the storm
I'm the hero of the tales
The son of thunder from the forgotten dales
This dreamland will be mine
Refuge from reality, from realityRefuge from reality
