Ten to Sen

Bo Ningen

I'm facing away from the things I don't know.
I turn right at the forking paths.
Only if you really can forgive yourself.The Voice is becoming transparent when you come to unknown place.
Even the certain feeling is very far away.
Though, Unlistenable moments haven't reached here yet.
I still can see this vision.Going back. Going back. Going back. Going back. Going back.
It start moving once again,
I think I'm going there by myself.
If you notice that road is the one you have already been past.Parallel line of life and curved line of life, dots lead to dots making lines.
I just stepped back again,
this time, I'll look straight forward.
I'm going forward as the sight is becoming little clearer when I was back there seeing that.Place them back.
Place them back. Place them back.
Have you come back here again?
It says watching me sideways.
I'll go start walking forward again only when I can forgive myself.Parallel line of life and curved line of life, dots lead to dots making lines.
The answer is still far away waiting.
Tomorrow is ascending before me.
The things watching me sideways has gone.
Tomorrow is coming back.
