Slowly But Surely

Briertone

Slowly surely, slowly surely
I'll walk away from that old desperate and tainted love
Caught up in a maze of love, the crazy, crazy love
Thought it was good, thought it was real
Thought it was but it wasn't love
I just don't know where I should go
So slowly surely
I'll walk away from self-serving, undeserving
Constantly hurting me love, deserting me love
You said, I said, we said but
Slowly surely
I'll walk away from confusing love
Misusing love, abusing love
This can't be
Slowly surely
I'll walk away from self serving, undeserving
Constantly hurting me love
I just don't know where I should go
No, I just don't know, know, know, know
Where I should go, so
Slowly surely
I'll walk away from that old desperate and dazed love
Caught up in the maze of love, the crazy craze of love
Thought it was good, thought it was real
Thought it was but it wasn't love
I just don't know where to go, So
Slowly surely
I'll walk away from, I'll walk away from
Slowly surely
I'll walk away from love, oh
Lonely, surely one step at a time but surely
I will pass the old love aside and love me
Lonely, surely I'll walk away from
Slowly surely I'll walk away from desperating love
Caught up in the maze love, crazy, crazy, crazy love
Slowly surely, I'll walk away from
Slowly surely, I'll walk away from
Slowly surely, I'll walk away from
Slowly surely, I'll walk away from

Slowly surely, I'll walk away from
Slowly Surely, slowly surely
