Troublemaker

Sinner

She looks up, wiped the tears from your eyes
She's fourteen, wants her father to die
Sadism sucks, mother surrenders on fear
She ain't gonna cry, nothing left to feelHe will never turning, her heart was burning
Eye to eye, her cradle was rocked, run awayHang tough, troublemaker
Hang tough, you're not to blame
Hang tough, troublemaker
He's burning now in flamesShe woke up, he slapped her face
Darkened the room, tried to violate her
She tried to talk, he made her a fool
Look out it could happen near youNeighbors don't listen, swallow the pain
She planned her vengeance today, run awayHang tough, troublemaker
Hang tough, you're not to blame
Hang tough, troublemaker
He's burning now in flamesOne shot, his blood congeals in tears
Will a judge listen, can he repeat her fourteen yearsHang tough, troublemaker
Hang tough, you're not to blame
Hang tough, troublemaker
He's burning now in flamesHang tough, troublemaker
Hang tough, you're not to blame
Hang tough, troublemaker
He's burning now in flamesTroublemaker
Troublemaker
